WHY DID RIBBENTROP MAKE HIS SPEECH?—NEW NAZI "LIAR-IN-CHIEF" IS NOT SO SKILFUL AS HIS PREDECESSOR

NEW AIR FRANCE SERVICE

H.K.-Kunming

Special to H.K. Daily Press
Arrangements between Air France and the Chinese Government for the initiation of a Hong-kong-Kunming service have, it is learned, been satisfactorily concluded.

It is not known when the new service will start, but it is understood that a weekly service is the basis of the scheme.

A new machine of greater capacity has been ordered by the French company.

Planes of two other companies, the China National Aviation Corporation and the Eurasia Aviation Corporation, are now operating regular services between Hongkong and the interior.

P.I.—N.E.I. LINE

Special to H.K. Daily Press

TOKYO, Apr. 29 (Havas)—A New York despatch to the Chugai Shogyo declares that Mr. Francis Sayre, United States High Commissioner to the Philippines, suggested to Washington the establishment of an airline linking the Philippines with the Netherlands East Indies.

The newspaper comments that such a line would cause repercussions in Japan in view of the present diplomatic tension between Japan and N.E.I. and the question of Japanese immigration to the islands.

CAPTURED NAZI SHIPS RENAMED

British Wireless reports that 20 of the 31 captured German merchant vessels have now been thoroughly overhauled and renamed and are in service for the Allies carrying munitions or food. Refitting of the remainder is almost complete.

The Shipping Minister, in a speech on Saturday, referred to the unsatisfactory nature of the crew accommodation in more than half of the captured ships and the necessity for extensive structural alterations.

NEW CRUISERS FOR DEFENCE OF D.E.I.

BATAVIA, Apr. 29 (Reuter)—The People's Council approved the adoption of the Bill submitted by the Dutch Government providing for the construction of three new battle-cruisers for the defence of the Dutch East Indies.

The Nationalists abstained from voting.

MOSCOW, Apr. 29 (Havas)—Mr. Laurence Steinhardt, the United States Ambassador, left for Washington on holiday. He will pass through Bucharest and Genoa.

MASTERY OF SEAS BY ALLIES

The giant Cunard liner Queen Mary (81,235 tons) dropped anchor in Table Bay on Sunday after completing a record voyage from New York which she had left 12 days earlier. The previous record for this voyage was 19 days.

In South Africa the completion of this voyage, without escort, is acclaimed as a striking demonstration of the Allies' mastery of the seas.—(British Wireless).

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter)—The main theme of the editorials in the British newspapers is Herr von Ribbentrop's speech. The question is asked why he made it.

The Daily Telegraph says its Zurich correspondent reports a neutral as observing that "your best propaganda weapons are the German propagandists themselves."

The Daily Telegraph adds that this expresses so well the effect which von Ribbentrop's latest propaganda exercise has produced that it is natural to ask what undisclosed purpose could have inspired such futility.

Referring to the alleged discovery of documents proving that the British had intended to invade Norway, the Daily Telegraph says: "As the commentator of the Columbia Broadcasting Corporation caustically remarks, the 'Germans are so lucky that they find convenient documents wherever they go.'"

"The violator of Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Denmark, however, is not as credible a witness as adversary of aggression."

LAUGHED OUT OF COURT
The Times think von Ribbentrop's speech was made for the benefit of the bewildered German public because the German reasons for the onslaught upon a small neutral were proved by events to be completely untrue.

The Times adds that von Ribbentrop is being laughed out of court by public opinion in the world. This is the man who told his master that Great Britain was a weakling and that after the conquest of Poland she would eagerly accept his peace offer and that American supplies can be withheld from the Allies.

Having proved mistaken on every one of these points, he still argued that France would leave Great Britain in the lurch (and directed his policy accordingly), that the Dominions would secede from the Mother Country and that the whole world would turn against Britain who was the oppressor of neutrals.

LESS SKILFUL LIAR
Dr. Goebbels is discredited and von Ribbentrop has taken his place, but he is even less skilful than his predecessor in the post of Liar-in-Chief to the Nazi regime.

The moral which neutral Governments is likely to draw from the Norwegian episode so far as it has gone will be most different from what the Nazi Minister had hoped. Every day it becomes clearer that if the Norwegian Government and people had been able to rely upon the loyal and determined use of their defences, even though Norway is ranked among the weakest of the neutrals, the German attack would have been held up or beaten off altogether with the aid of Allied help which could then have deployed with far greater speed and effect. Even more probably the invasion never have begun.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MOSLEMS IN INDIA

Special to H.K. Daily Press
LONDON, Apr. 29 (Havas)—A message from Delhi states that the Committee of the Pan-Indian Moslem Independent Conference unanimously voted a resolution opposing the political dismemberment of India.

The resolution, which was suggested by the President of the Committee, states that India needs geographical and political homogeneity being indiscriminately the home of all citizens regardless of race or religion.

It concludes that Moslems must realise that they have the same responsibilities as any other inhabitants of India.

WAR SHALL LAST UNTIL NORWAY IS FREE AGAIN

SOMEWHERE IN NORWAY, Apr. 29 (Reuter)—The war shall last until the usurpers have been hurled out of the country and Norway is again free, says a declaration by the Norwegian Government.

It thanks the British, French and Polish Governments for their aid, and says: "Together these Governments are fighting against a tyranny which violates international law and seeks to subdue small nations. The Norwegian Government trusts that law and liberty will be victorious in the end."

The declaration says that the German onslaught must have been prepared long in advance, since the Germans invaded Norway simultaneously at several points.

Mr. R. S. Hudson, Minister for Shipping.

MR. HUDSON MEANS BUSINESS

Commenting on the "excellent and promising" tone of the Shipping Minister's speech on Saturday, the Manchester Guardian says: "It was the speech of a man who means business. Less and less do discussions matter about whether all the Germans are 'solidly behind Hitler' or what we propose to do with Germans of all kinds after the war. As Mr. Hudson pointed out our first affair, and the only one that matters at present, is to win, and win handsomely."—(British Wireless).

Big World Demand For Coal British Drive To Increase Output

Half the miners in Britain who were unemployed at the outbreak of war are now at work as the result of the Government drive to increase the peace-time output of 204,000,000 tons yearly by 40,000,000 tons.

Lord Portal, Chairman of the Coal Production Council, is touring British coalfields to speed up production to meet the enormous world demand created by the blockade of German exports.

When the war began, Germany was selling abroad 24,000,000 tons a year and Poland 14,000,000 almost half of which is estimated to have been cut off by the British Navy. France, Italy, South American countries and overseas bunkering stations are seeking supplies and enquiries are also coming from Canada, Portugal, Greece, Egypt and Algeria.

Italy lost 2,000,000 tons of German coal when the Rotterdam shipments ceased and now she is second only to France as a buyer from South Wales. It is believed she would take far more, if available, says British Wireless.

NOT THE SLIGHTEST TRUTH

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter)—An Admiralty communiqué states that there is not the slightest truth in the German claim to have sunk or severely damaged, during the past 48 hours, five cruisers and thirteen transports.

British Wireless adds that H.M. trawler Hammond (Skipper A. McKay, R.N.R.) was damaged by a bomb and subsequently sank and H.M. trawler Larwood (Skipper P. J. Quinlan, R.N.R.) was set on fire by an incendiary bomb.

There were no casualties in either vessel.

Three more enemy supply ships have been torpedoed and sunk.

GERMAN NORTHERN DRIVE FROM OSLO UP GUDBRAND VALLEY CHECKED, REPORT

Artillery Breaks Down In Face Of Energetic British Defence

STOCKHOLM, APR. 29 (REUTER)—THE GERMAN NORTHWARD DRIVE FROM OSLO UP THE GUDBRAND AND OESTER VALLEYS has been checked, respectively, at Kvam and a point north of Roeros, according to the latest despatches published here.

It is reported before Kvam, the German attacks were supported by violent bombardments from the air and artillery broke down in face of the energetic defence by the British troops who are stated to be in possession of excellent defensive positions in this area.

Military circles in Paris expect an improvement in the situation in Norway.

It is pointed out that the situation at Narvik and Steinkjer, north of Trondheim, is unchanged while it is now clear that the first German units to reach the important neighbourhood of Kvam have been attacking for two or three days without success.

At Roeros, the German advance is halted by the destruction of an important bridge.

AIR BATTLES

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter)—According to the Norwegian Telegraph Agency air battles on a considerable scale between German bombers and Allied fighters took place yesterday over Lake Engset near Alesund.

The Norwegian High Command communiqué states that at sea battles continued between Norwegian ships and German warplanes and naval units.

The Germans bombed and machine-gunned Norwegian fishing vessels and the Norwegian merchantship War Fird.

OESTER VALLEY

STOCKHOLM, Apr. 29 (Reuter)—Interest in the Norwegian situation centres at present in the German efforts to cross the hills from the Oester Valley in order to reach the flank of the Dombas-Stoeren line held by the Allies.

A small German detachment is reported to be near Hjerkin, north-west of Dombas, and other detachments are believed to be crossing by other routes, but it is stated that the Allies are ready to receive these travellers.

Good numbers of British troops are reported to be at both Berkak and Kvikne and other places which may be threatened.

BRITISH TRADE MISSION TO VISIT ROME SHORTLY

Reuter's diplomatic correspondent in London learns that a British trade delegation may shortly visit Rome as the result of the conversation last Friday between Lord Halifax, Foreign Minister, and Signor Bastianini, Italian Ambassador in London.

It is understood that Lord Halifax informed Signor Bastianini that the British Government was anxious to do its best to meet any points of difficulty which the Italian Government could reasonably bring to its notice.

The main object of the talk, which was the result of an invitation by Lord Halifax to Signor Bastianini was to consider the resumption of economic negotiations between the two countries with a view of increasing trade exchanges.

PROGRESS HOPED

Hopes are entertained of making good progress and, if these hopes do not prove false, discussions will follow, in all probability, to be continued in Rome by British officials.

The question of contraband control may be discussed at the meeting as it is impossible, in time of war, to discuss trade relations between a belligerent and a non-belligerent without touching on this subject.

MILITARY SITUATION OBSCURE

Shansi Front

CHUNGKING, Apr. 29 (Reuter)—The military situation in south-east Shansi, north Kiangsi and south Anhwei remains obscure with both sides making conflicting claims.

In south-east Shansi it appears that fighting is going on in the vicinity of Chingchen which apparently is in Japanese hands. After the occupation of the town, Japanese forces continued to push southward capturing Lichwan, south-west of Chingchen, on Apr. 28. The Chinese, however, claim to have recaptured the town on the following day.

COUNTER-ATTACK
In north Kiangsi the Japanese forces at Nanchang are reported to be launching a vigorous counter-attack, particularly in the area west of the Kiangsi capital. On the evening of Apr. 27, Chinese reports declared the Japanese vanguard reached the outskirts of Fengsin where severe fighting is said to be in progress.

In south Anhwei, Japanese forces at Fanchang are pushing towards Kinghsien, while those at Kweichih are reported to be advancing on Tsingyang. Fighting, it is added, is going on in the Shikungshan mountains, north-west of Kinghsien, and in the Kluhwashan mountains, south-west of Tsingyang.

POLISH SPIRIT CANNOT BE CRUSHED

Special to H.K. Daily Press

NEW YORK, Apr. 29 (Havas)—The Polish people are being oppressed, towns and buildings destroyed, but the spirit of a great people cannot be crushed, declared Mr. Herbert Hoover, speaking at a reception in honour of Gen. Haller, Minister without Portfolio, of the present Polish Government.

He added that permanent peace was impossible as long as the oppression of independent States continued. He said that $30,000,000 would be necessary for the reconstruction of Poland after the war.

INTER-SCHOOLS SPORTS

GOVERNOR'S SHIELD WON BY WAH YAN

Many Surprises Feature Fine Day's Sports

Challenged by five other schools right up to the last event of the day, the 1,200 metres medley relay race, Wah Yan College, helped on by a magnificent last lap by Lam Kwok-leung, scored their first inter-school sports victory at the Caroline Hill Stadium yesterday, winning from St. Stephen's by just one point.

St. Stephen's had no team in the relay race. Five other schools, D. B. S., C. B. S., King's, La Salle and the eight points for first place was sufficient to give the relay victors the Governor's Shield.

Two good efforts over 200 metres by Chan Yee-fong and Lai Chung-yin for Wah Yan failed to put the College's representative in front for the last leg, but Lam Kwok-leung proved equal to the occasion and steadily caught up to and overhauled Castro of La Salle to win the day.

MANY SURPRISES

The meet was featured by innumerable surprises. First, King's College failed to win more than a point from the long jump where eight points looked a probability. Then, Kwok Chi-hung, inter-school record holder for the pole vault and winner of the event last year with 9 feet 11 inches, failed to survive the eliminating jumps. Fong Chi-hung, Wah Yan's high jumper, won the event at an inch below the record, but later could do no better than tie for second place at his specialty.

THE SHOT PUT

R. Silva of La Salle dealt King's a further blow when he moved ahead of the College's two representatives in the Shot Put to win at 37 feet 3 inches.

Sin Kwok-bun, King's young quarter miler, came out first in the 400 Metres, beating a very smart field by a good yard. Tavares of St. Joseph's was two yards ahead of Macauley and two other highly regarded quarter-milers failed to come in the scoring list.

L. Silva of La Salle provided the surprise of the day when he out ran Khan Mohammed of Queen's to win second place at 1,500 Metres and be clocked unofficially in 4 mins. 52 2/5 secs. for the distance.

A GOOD JUMP

Wolfgang Yue won the high jump at 5 feet 7 1/2 inches, to come within a quarter-inch of the record, but failed in two attempts at 5 feet 8 inches. But he won the high hurdles in the interval, and was well satisfied with the result.

Mr. C. G. Solis, the Director of Education, in presenting the prizes, congratulated all the schools competing for the keenness that marked the day in a competition where the championship was not decided till the very last event.

H.K. INTERPORT FOOTBALLERS CONFIDENT

Looking fit and feeling confident of success the Hongkong Interport footballers boarded a ship last night and will sail for Saigon this morning. The sixteen players are accompanied by Messrs. C. A. Goldenberg and J. C. Guilmang as co-managers.

The players making the trip are Tam Kwan-kon, Sammy Tsang Pryde, Porrow, Fung King-cheong, Hau Yun-sang, Lee Tin-sang, Soong Ling-sing, Lee Kwok-wai, Leung Wing-chiu, Fox, Bright, Yeung Shui-yick, Lau Tau-man, Wong King-cheong, and Guy.

MORE AUSTRALIAN PONIES FOR COLONY RACING

While the Australian ponies imported by the Hongkong Jockey Club in previous years were sired by somewhat obscure sires it is learned that the next batch of ponies being imported by the Club will be of much improved quality, and will be from some of the Southern Continent's best studs.

The first shipment of Australians arrived here in 1932 and since then the number of Australians racing on the local turf has been steadily increasing.

Owing to the growing difficulty in getting China ponies from Manchuria, the Club is now negotiating for the importation of some 125 Australians for the next season.

The list for the draw has already been fully subscribed, and the ponies are expected to arrive at the end of the year—but it is not likely that they will race until next spring.

Tsui Wai-pui In Final For Fifth Time

YAN-PUI LOSES IN FOUR SETS

Tsui Wai-pui, holder of the Colony singles tennis championship, qualified to meet S. A. Rumjahn in the final tomorrow when he defeated his brother, Tsui Yan-pui, last year's runner-up, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4 in four exciting sets on the Stand Court yesterday.

Neither of the brothers gave anything like a sparkling display of tennis, and, at times, the standard fell far below tournament play, but the champion was doggedly consistent while his younger brother was inclined to be erratic. The latter had by far the better service, which was his main asset.

CLEVER PLACING

Play was confined mostly to the baseline. The driving was not exceptionally forceful but the placing was clever and some bright tactics were adopted by both players.

Tsui Wai-pui won the first set 6-4, but was completely outplayed in the second which Yan-pui captured after seven games.

The third and fourth sets were ding-dong affairs in which the score rose very gradually. It must be mentioned, however, that in the last set the champion was leading 4-1 before Yan-pui drew level winning the eighth game of that match when Wai-pui was leading 40-love. The champion thereafter drew away to win 6-4.

NO DECISION

It will be recalled that for 47 games last Wednesday the Tsui brothers battled for the right of entry into the final but no decision was reached the fifth set being 4-4 when falling light intervened.

Tsui Wai-pui won the title in 1934, 1936, 1938, 1939.

GRATIFYING YEAR HAD BY CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUNDS ASSOCN.

Chief Justice Re-elected President

THE ACTIVITIES OF THE CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUNDS ASSOCIATION DURING THE PAST YEAR were reviewed at the annual meeting yesterday by the President Sir Atholl MacGregor, who described the result as very gratifying.

The meeting was held in the office of the Registrar, Supreme Court, and those present included Hon. Sir Robert Kotewall, Hon. Mr. W. N. Thomas Tam, Dr. S. W. T'so, Mr. Tang Shu-kin, Mr. Lo Tung-fan, Mr. C. G. Solis, Miss Ruby Mowling, Mr. Lee Gwok-ying (Honorary Secretary) and Mr. Ko Sik-wai (Honorary Treasurer).

Sir Atholl said he knew how all members of the Association regretted the sudden and untimely death of Mr. Li Chor-chi, who was an ardent supporter of the Association and took great interest in its work. The Association would long miss him, said Sir Atholl, who suggested that the sympathies of members be conveyed to the late Mr. Li's relatives.

Reviewing the report and accounts, Sir Atholl said the Association was flourishing. The accounts showed a credit balance at the end of the year of $3,560, which was extremely satisfactory. They were grateful to all supporters, particularly to the various associations and clubs who had helped year after year.

GOOD CONDITION

Seven playgrounds had been kept going in the year; these were in good condition. The Public Works Department, which after the 1938 typhoon very kindly erected a new fence around the Southern Playground, had again come forward by putting up a concrete and wire fence when the old one showed signs of wear and tear.

More and more schools and colleges had come forward to help, said Sir Atholl, and he was glad that that more fortunate children of the community were showing a sense of responsibility towards their less fortunate brothers and sisters.

The support the Association was receiving was very encouraging, but Sir Atholl said they would welcome help from everyone. The Association was filling a large blank in work for children in the Colony, and in conjunction with organisations was helping to turn out a healthier generation.

MORE COMPACT

Regarding the proposal to amend a section of the Constitution relating to the composition of the Executive Committee, Mr. Lo Tung-fan, chairman thereof, said that the idea was to have a smaller and more compact body to facilitate the Association's work. As at present, the Committee consisted of nearly 20 members.

Sir Atholl explained that, according to the present rules, the Executive Committee consisted of many of the nominees of the associations and clubs who were supporters of the Association. It sometimes was a long time before the names of the nominees were known.

At the suggestion of Dr. T'so, it was decided to form a General Committee, to consist of the Executive Committee and other members. Regarding the amendment of the Constitution, it was decided to circulate members notifying them of the proposed change.

WHITE METAL STOLEN

Charged with breaking into a store room at the Kowloon Docks and stealing seven bars of white metal, two Chinese, Ng Chi-kung, 20, and Leung Ngau, 33, a fitter, appeared before Mr. E. Himsforth at Kowloon Court yesterday. Sub-insp. Madgwick, prosecuting, said that on April 29 the store room was broken into and a metal, valued at $950, stolen. The stolen metal was traced to two marine hawkers, who, it is alleged, bought it from defendants, and $680 worth of it recovered. The marine hawkers, Sen Kau, 52, and Tam Chat, 35, also appeared before the Magistrate, charged with receiving stolen property. Mr. D. McCallum appeared for first and second defendant, all four men being remanded 24 hours.

JEALOUSY LETS HER DOWN

That she had assaulted complainant after having followed her lover, a barber, to complainant's home, was the prosecution's case at Kowloon Court yesterday against Lam Kam, 34, a woman, defendant to a charge of assault with a piece of firewood on a woman named Yip Sai-lan, 31, who spent four days in hospital as a result. Det.-Sergt. S. Dowman, prosecuting, said that defendant had been living five months with a barber, and on April 24, suspicious of his movements, had followed him to the home of complainant at Kowloon City. Defendant accused the other woman of alienating the affections of her lover, and followed the accusation by picking up a piece of firewood and striking her over the head.

NANLING RECAPTURED BY CHINESE TROOPS

Japanese Reinforcements Are Steadily Held

TUNKI, ANHWEI, April 29 (Central)—After recapturing Nanling, 32 miles south-west of Wuhu in south Anhwei, Chinese forces are mopping up the remnant Japanese in the suburbs.

In an attack on Tungstun, and Sanlien, south-west of Nanling, during the weekend, they inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy and put the remnant to flight.

Part of the fleeing Japanese, succeeding in joining forces with the reinforcements from Fanchang, have been attacked in the hilly regions near Chinghsien, south-east of Nanling.

The reinforced Japanese from Weichin and Yingchiawet, who continued their push toward Tsingyang on April 28, are being engaged by the Chinese in the rough terrain near Tsingyang.

Spirited fighting has been in progress near Shouyangkwan, south of Fengtai, on the north bank of the Hwai River in west Anhwei, where the Chinese have launched a drive against the Japanese.

More than 200 casualties have been inflicted on the enemy who are reported to be steadily falling back. The Chinese are pressing toward Shousien, south of Fengtai.

COUNTER-OFFENSIVE IN SHANSI

LOYANG, April 29 (Central)—Chinese forces in the Chungtiao Mokien regions in south Shansi, launched a general counter-offensive on the Japanese on April 27, and according to latest reports, they have made sweeping advances.

Yientichen, Japanese stronghold near Maosungu, has been recaptured. Prior to their retreat, the Japanese are reported to have cremated some 700 of their dead. Several other points in the vicinity have also been recaptured by the Chinese.

LUCHWANCHEN RE-TAKEN
After being reinforced with 5,000 men, the Japanese fiercely attacked the Chinese positions near Maosungu on April 26. Japanese tanks and planes were brought into action, severely bombarding the Chinese lines. Despite the overwhelming odds, the Chinese succeeded in steadfastly holding their ground.

In south-east Shansi, the Japanese have also met with setbacks. Luchwanchen, near Tsincheng, has been retaken by the Chinese, who are now vigorously attacking the enemy at Chishan-tsun and Shihot, south-west of Linghwan.

IN CENTRAL CHINA
CHUNGKING, April 29 (Central)—Fighting in central China on the Hupeh, Hunan and Kiangsi fronts was confined to localised operations during the weekend.

The Japanese counter-attack from Nanchang was resumed on Saturday. Fighting raged in the vicinity of Fenghsin where the entrenched Chinese forces firmly held their ground.

North of Fenghsin, two fierce assaults on Chienchow were launched by the Japanese, supported by a dozen field pieces on Saturday and yesterday. The Chinese positions were maintained.

JAPANESE UNIT "BAGGED"
On the south Hupeh front, Chinese forces successfully "bagged" a Japanese unit advancing to attack Kluksungshan. The invaders were wiped out and their supplies seized.

The Japanese naval offensive from the Tungting Lake was a complete failure, scores of armed launches having been sunk by Chinese shore batteries, and by yesterday was reduced to cruising operations. The few Japanese troops that succeeded in landing on the eastern bank of the lake were mopped up by the Chinese.

On the Tungpeishan sector, Chinese forces have recaptured Tamiao and are advancing steadily on Pingchingkwan.

Undefended Towns Are Raided

GERMAN METHODS OF WARFARE

LONDON, April 29 (Reuter)—The Norwegian telegraph agency states that German bombers made a fresh wave of raids during the week-end.

The undefended town of Aalesund was subjected to a terrific attack lasting over two hours. Six planes crossed and recrossed the city, dropping 500-pound bombs.

Many private houses were completely destroyed and many others made uninhabitable. A large Church which had an enormous cross clearly marked on the roof, received a direct hit from a low-flying plane.

People in the streets were machine-gunned and Red Cross workers trying to save the injured were forced to return to shelter owing to machine-gun fire. Molde was heavily bombed on Sunday.

CABLE NEWS IN BRIEF

PARIS, April 29 (Reuter)—An official communiqué issued on Sunday states that there is nothing to report except some artillery fire and a local encounter west of the Vosges in the course of which we inflicted losses on the enemy.

PARIS, April 29 (Reuter)—According to a Bucharest dispatch, armed guards at the Rumanian oil wells have been increased and ordered to fire on any stranger unable to give a satisfactory account of himself. From Sunday night, the Bucharest aerodrome was guarded by troops.

MADRID, April 29 (Reuter)—The death is announced of the celebrated Spanish painter, Hoanquin Mir, aged 86.

BUCHAREST, April 29 (Reuter)—A German military plane landed at the aerodrome here on Sunday morning.

Two civilian passengers were welcomed by a number of Germans and the Rumanian Director of Civil Aviation.

The plane left for Sofia after half an hour.

Rumanian official circles refused to comment, but according to a generally well-informed source, the plane brought copies of the German White Paper containing "evidence" of Britain's intentions in Scandinavia.

NEW C. - IN - C. FOR CHINA STATION

LONDON, April 29 (Reuter)—Vice-Admiral Geoffrey Layton has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the China Station in succession to Admiral Sir Percy Noble, to date from July 10, 1940. Vice-Admiral Layton will assume command about September 1, 1940.

JAPANESE PLANE BROUGHT DOWN

PANCHENG, April 29 (Central)—A Japanese bomber was hit by Chinese land forces in south Anhwei and crashed near Anking on April 21 according to a field report. The plane was wrecked and all three of the crew were killed.

RED CROSS UNIT

LONDON, April 29 (Reuter)—A British ambulance unit which was in Finland is now on its way to join the North-western Expeditionary Force in Norway. It consists of 20 ambulances and 60 doctors.

ALLIED WAR MACHINE WORKING SMOOTHLY

Thousands Of Troops Move Up To New Positions

LONDON, April 29 (Reuter)—The Allied war machine is working smoothly and efficiently along the front north of Trondheim, says Reuter's special correspondent with the Allied Forces there. Already many thousands of British and French troops have safely disembarked at Namsos and have moved up silently to points of action around Steinkjer.

I was officially informed that the Allies were forced to abandon Steinkjer itself last week because the town was completely gutted by German incendiary bombs, but strong British, French and Norwegian units are now in position, north of the town.

The correspondent, who reached the North Trondheim region after a most hazardous thirty-six hour journey from the Swedish frontier, by a horse-drawn sledge over the mountains and frozen lakes of Central Norway, relates the story of the capture of a crew of three of a German bomber, forced to land on Lake Immingham by three Norwegian peasants and a Customs official to whom the Germans politely surrendered, while concealed peasants covered the army with rifles.

WELL-EQUIPPED TROOPS

The correspondent also tells of seeing a low-flying German bomber bombing a railway station and machine-gunning a British detachment, but describes all the British and French troops he had encountered as well-armed, well-equipped, confident and cheerful.

Many French Alpine troops were on skis.

POSITION BETTER
He interviewed General Carton de Wiart in the British Headquarters in a little Norwegian cottage and the General said the position is now much better as the men were settling down and happy in their new environment. Reinforcements were arriving in good numbers and the German air attacks had greatly diminished since Allied anti-aircraft defences and fighter planes had come into action in the war zone.

There had been no raid on Namsos itself for four days although on one occasion German planes came over on reconnaissance flights at a great height. General Carton de Wiart said that two German bombers had already been brought down by British fighters near Namsos.

Further Allied Troops Landed At Andalsnes

In Spite Of Heavy Air Attacks By Germans

LONDON, April 29 (Reuter)—A War Office communiqué states that further enemy attacks in Gudbrandsdal Valley have been repulsed.

Further disembarkations have been successfully carried out, despite enemy air attacks at Andalsnes and on the lines of communication.

There has been enemy air action in Narvik, but this in no way interfered with the Allied operations.

Two points stand out in connection with this communiqué.

FAVOURABLE POSITION

In the first place it shows that for the second day in succession the Germans are being held up in the Gudbrandsdal Valley.

Secondly, the continued landings at Andalsnes, which is connected with the Gudbrandsdal Valley by railway, means that the Allied forces there can be either reinforced by rail or can fall back to stronger and well-supported positions.

The railway branches at Dombaas where the line runs north to Trondheim. Eighty miles along the line is a junction at Støren, where a light railway runs down into Osterdal Valley.

GREAT STRATEGIC VALUE

Both Dombaas and Støren are held by the Allies. Both are clearly of great strategic value.

The line is reported to be threatened by advance German units which, the main body having been held up in Osterdal Valley, were sent across the mountain tracks to cut it.

There has been no further news of the advance units but Paris messages state that Allied troops have arrived at one station north of Dombaas towards which the Germans are moving.

NAZIS REINFORCED

BERLIN, April 29 (Reuter)—The official German news agency claims that German troops operating near Trondheim have received fresh reinforcements.

It adds that "captured Norwegian batteries" have been made ready for action.

Cowardly Nazi War Tactics

WOMEN, CHILDREN AS "COVERS"

LONDON, April 29 (Reuter)—A Norwegian High Command communiqué says that during the fighting on the Narvik front on Thursday, the Germans, in a counter-attack, forced civilians including women and children, to march in front in order to cover their advance; thus some of our advance posts were forced to surrender. The soldiers who surrendered were afterwards used as a cover by Germans in the same way.

"After the first consternation, our troops continued fighting bravely" causing the enemy heavy losses.

The Germans abandoned Lap-paughen and withdrew to Gratans-botten.

The communiqué continued that the Norwegians took some war material, and the Norwegian air force bombed and machine-gunned some German detachments.

Hongkong Gaol Murder Trial At Sessions

Lengthy Statement From Dock By Accused

THE ALLEGATION THAT THE FELLOW-PRISONER WHOM WAS CHARGED WITH HAVING MURDERED AT STANLEY PRISON ON FEBRUARY 4 HAD FIRST ASSAULTED HIM, and that there was a fight in which he fared badly and was partly stunned, was made in a statement from the dock at the Criminal Sessions yesterday by LI SHEK-MAN.

Accused was alleged to have stabbed a man, LAU CHUEN, on that date, resulting in the latter's death on March 9.

It was disclosed that the deceased was a principal witness for the Crown when Li was charged with the murder of the master of a money-changer's shop at Hung-hom in March, 1939. Li was then found guilty and condemned to death but the sentence was subsequently commuted to life imprisonment.

The trial was before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor.

Mr. J. P. Murphy, Assistant Crown Solicitor, prosecuted, assisted by Det.-Insp. L. R. Whant, while Mr. George She, instructed by Mr. M. A. da Silva, appeared for the defence.

CROWN CASE
The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs. R. P. Phillips (foreman), M. Zak, J. C. Gardner, Tang King-man, U. Shu-ki, Chen King-shing and Lau Chun-kwok.

Mr. Murphy said that at the time of the alleged stabbing, Lau was serving a sentence for keeping a heroin divan. He had been in prison since June 26, 1939, and was due for discharge on February 5, the day after he was stabbed.

Li was also an inmate of Stanley Prison. In March, 1939 he was one of several men tried for murder and Lau, who was an accomplice, turned King's Evidence.

The events leading up to the death of Lau commenced on August 8 last, said Mr. Murphy, when he was attacked by Li. The incident occurred in the third ward, a place where Li had no right to be, and counsel suggested that he went there deliberately, sought out Li and attacked him.

On February 3 Lau was quartered in cell 78 in "F" Hall and Li in "D" Hall, a separate building. Li worked in the tailoring shop and on that day he was one of 30 persons detailed to remain after the rest of the party had finished work. The 30 men were later handed over to a prison guard to bring back to their cells.

DO NOT RETURN
Li, however, did not return to his cell. The officer in charge of "B" Hall found that Li's cell ticket had been removed, and his chopsticks and towel missing.

Meanwhile, Li had gone to "F" Hall where he told the officer in charge that he had just been discharged from hospital and that there was no room for him in "D" Hall. In point of fact Li had never been to hospital.

Li was placed in "F" Hall, and thus it came to be that both Li and Lau were in the same hall. February 4, was a Sunday and there was no labour for prisoners. It was also the day before which Lau was to be released, and in accordance with the rules he was not allowed to join the other prisoners for morning exercise. He remained in his cell, No. 78.

Following exercise, the prisoners were led back to their respective cells and as the warden in charge was opening them one by one he heard a loud cry.

Li was seen to break from a column and rush across to cell 78. The warden saw something in his hand and he was also seen making a downward and forward striking movement with it. He was seized.

Lau was removed to Queen Mary Hospital, where he died on March 9, the cause of death being pneumonia and haemorrhage. Before he died, Lau made a declaration, accusing Li of having stabbed him.

ACCUSED'S STATEMENT
After Crown witnesses, consisting principally of prison warders, had given testimony, accused made a long statement from the dock in his own defence.

After recounting various events in connection with the Hung-hom robbery in which he alleged that the deceased was the instigator, he said that when he saw Lau Chuen in prison he inquired of Lau the reason for his being there. Lau became annoyed.

On a subsequent occasion, continued accused, he said to Lau what a nice thing it was for an informer to be in prison, and when other prisoners learned the facts they promised his assistance to assault Lau. For this assault, accused said he served 10 weeks on rice and water rations.

When he came out, Lau, who occupied a cell near his, told him to watch out.

Coming to the events of Feb. 4, accused said that when he was returning to his cell after exercise, he met Lau, who suddenly struck him a blow. They fought and accused said he saw Lau produce something from his girdle.

PICKED UP SOMETHING
During the fight, accused said he fell down and picked up something wrapped in a piece of cloth which he saw lying on the floor.

When he got up, Lau gave him a blow that sent him reeling quite a distance. Accused said that in the subsequent exchange of blows he struck Lau on the chest and again in the arm when the deceased tried to seize his throat.

Accused said he was then seized by a warden and taken outside, when he alleged, Lau once again gave him another blow. He denied that he had any intention of killing Lau Chuen.

Hearing will be resumed today.

TOURIST HURT IN FALL

Exchange Building Accident

An American Mr. W. L. Hunter, who was found unconscious in Exchange Building at noon yesterday and taken to Queen Mary Hospital is understood to be progressing satisfactorily. He regained consciousness late yesterday afternoon and, as far as he could remember, he fell in the passage of the third floor of the building where he was later found by a lift boy.

Mr. Hunter, a tourist, arrived in the Colony from Saigon on Friday and was waiting for a shipping connexion.

At the hospital it was discovered he had sustained a severe fracture of the skull.

THREE MONTHS FOR STABBING

Tsui Chik-ying, 18, a coolie, appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at Kowloon Court yesterday on a charge of causing grievous bodily harm to Li Choi, 33, who was found by the police at Shumshui ferry wharf at 3.45 p.m. on April 27 with a stab wound, half-inch deep, in his back.

Det.-Sergt. Shaw, conducting the case, stated that he was called to the scene of the incident, where onlookers pointed out defendant as the man who had done the stabbing. He had attempted to arrest defendant on the spot, but the latter ran away and could not be caught up with. Defendant was arrested later, however, on information.

The stabbing had followed a quarrel between the two men. Sentence was passed, of three months, hard labour.

WOUNDING CASE

Committal proceedings were continued at Kowloon Court yesterday against Chiu Tong, 21, who is charged with wounding Li Wah in Kowloon on April 1 with intent to cause grievous bodily harm and, alternatively, with wounding.

Complainant is in the employ of the Military at Stonecutters Island and the attack on his person by defendant, it is alleged, followed a quarrel he had with a fellow employee at Stonecutters. Hearing will be continued tomorrow.

AXE KILLING ALLEGED

Appearing on remand before Mr. H. G. Sheldon at the Central Court yesterday charged with murder, Lo Kah, contractor's coolie, was committed to the Criminal Sessions. The deceased was a foreman, who was alleged to have been hacked to death by defendant with an axe in a room on Apr. 3.

THE CONTROL OF COMMUNICATIONS

THE OPERATIONS now taking place between the Allied and German forces in Norway have gradually assumed the shape for a control, in the first instance, of communications. The Allies are, on the one hand, straining every effort to cut off the Nazi fighting units from all communication with Germany and the Germans, on the other, are realising daily the urgent need there is to establish contact with their invading forces in the North. As far as the Nazi hopes of keeping in touch with their fleet are concerned, the British and French naval units have blasted these in no uncertain manner and the impotency of the Nazi Fleet at present has completely upset any plans which Herr Hitler may have had in mind for keeping his forces supplied with the aid of his Navy.

THE ALLIED troops now fighting in Norway alongside the Norwegians are endeavouring to drive a solid wedge between the Nazi armies in the north and south of Norway and are slowly securing their objective in their push from west to east from a point slightly to the south of Trondheim. Herr Hitler's only hope, therefore, appears to lie in his being able to make use of the numerous railways which run from Southern Sweden into Norway and to the North to relieve the position with supplies and reinforcements for his troops, which are now in danger of being cut off from communications with Germany. They have already been isolated along the coast and where they have been able to secure a foothold they may be starved out unless help comes to them swiftly.

HERR HITLER'S demand to Sweden for the use of her railways, both for the purpose of sending assistance and for securing the iron ore he needs has been flatly turned down. This will make it all the more necessary for the Nazis to strike at Sweden in an attempt to accomplish their objective with one quick blow. When this blow falls it will provide a waiting world with a true idea of the trend of feeling in Russia towards Nazi intentions.

INDIAN P. C. GAOLED FOR DESERTION
Man Who Wandered Into Chinese Territory

Found guilty, on a charge of desertion, Harbhajan Singh, 32, constable B162 of the Hongkong Police Force, was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday.

The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge on Saturday, April 13, giving the reason that he was drunk and wandered into Chinese territory where he was held prisoner by the Japanese who then occupied the border.

He was sentenced to six months' hard labour, but a few days later Mr. Edwards re-opened the case under the Magistrates' Ordinance, remarking that doubted defendant's pleas being one of guilt.

Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russell appeared for the defendant yesterday and pleaded guilty. Det.-Sergt. F. W. Fowles prosecuted.

The defendant joined the Police Force in October, 1937, for a term of five years.

Constable B265, Battate Singh, who was stationed at Sheung Shui Police Station late last year, said that he last saw the defendant, dressed in civilian clothing, leaving the station carrying a basket.

FAILED TO REPORT

Sergt. W. S. McHardy, officer-in-charge of Sheung Shui Police Station, testified that the defendant was granted 24 hours leave at 8 a.m. on November 7 and was to return on duty at 10 a.m. on November 9. He failed to report for duty and a circular was sent to all stations.

Witness explained that when a police officer was granted short leave he could go anywhere within the Colony. There was no Police Regulation to prevent an officer taking short leave to leave Hong Kong. But he said, in another clause in the Regulation a police officer must first apply before he was allowed to leave the Colony, and in such a case, the application should first be sent through sudden interest in the European war and her concern over possible repercussions in the Far East have been motivated by her deteriorating economic position. During the last war, it will be remembered, Japan gained many economic advantages as a partner in the Allied cause. Today, with her military venture into China facing failure and her economic strength sapped to its limits, Japan is certainly not too confident of being able to recoup herself while the European powers are preoccupied with hostilities in the West. Her import trade has fallen sharply in an endeavour to conserve her resources and her export industries are feeling the pinch of labour shortage, since the greater part of her workers have been almost completely absorbed in her armament and munition factories to keep her war machine in China supplied with necessary equipment.

THESE ARE handicaps which are daily placing Japan in a more embarrassing position and, before the situation becomes a desperate one, Japan may foolishly be inclined to believe that relief can be obtained by a new venture. Hence her sudden interest in the status of the Dutch East Indies, which as a potential buyer of her goods and an exporter of the essentials she needs, holds a unique position in the Orient. The full meaning of Herr Hitler's words "export or die" is apparently just beginning to dawn on the Japanese and pressure from within is no doubt being exerted on her statesmen to prevent the economic crisis which is threatening to envelop the country.

WITH TWO of her trade treaties—with America and the Netherlands—lost by abrogation, with no chance of renewal, Japan has begun a vigorous trade policy—witness the recent exchange of notes between Nippon and Argentina. Japan, however, must not forget that other countries are just as anxious to strengthen their economic position and any attempt to save her own embarrassment by force will meet with strong resistance.

him to the Commissioner of Police. He had received no such application in this instance.

Denying the charge, the defendant said that on the morning of November 7 he had some rum and had finished more than half of the bottle. He remembered carrying two bottles of rum in his basket, but could not remember leaving the station.

"HAD MORE DRINK"

"When I had left the station, I remember I went out to buy some onion seeds. I went to the village where I had more drink from my bottles. My memory was rather hazy when leaving the station."

The next thing I remembered was 8 o'clock the following morning when I found myself locked up by Japanese. I told them that I had come there by mistake and asked them to let me go. They refused.

"The next day I was taken to somewhere in Canton. I was detained till Dec. 7."

Defendant then said that the Japanese accused him of acting as a British spy.

Mr. Russell: They thought you were in the Secret Service—Yes. They refused to let me come back. I was not allowed to have a paper and pencil. They took my photograph and I was employed as a kind of watchman.

ESCAPE ATTEMPT

"I attempted to escape once but I was arrested and put in a cell for about 15 or 16 days. I promised them that I would not escape any more and they put me on duty again with the Japanese soldiers. If I went out a Japanese soldier would accompany me."

"I eventually shaved off my beard and escaped. I got down to the frontier by walking, which took me seven days. I was going to Lokmahau Police Station when a Chinese soldier arrested me and took me to Shumehun."

"On November 10 I was handed over to the Hongkong Police."

Mr. A. R. S. Major, Superintendent of Police, said that the defendant did not have a good record in the Force.

AN AMERICAN LOOKS AT THE WAR

"WE HAVE BEEN FOOLING OURSELVES FOR 20 YEARS"

Britain has never officially attempted to introduce any form of propaganda for the Allied cause in the United States of America. It has been suggested in many quarters that this is a mistaken policy and that by such inaction the Allies are allowing German claims and distortions to poison the mind of the American people against the Allies.

Coming almost as a corrective to this charge is a letter which appeared in the New York Times recently by an American citizen—Mr. Lawrence Hunt. As evidence of purely American thought, which is gradually finding expression in the United States, we reproduce this letter. (TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK TIMES)

PONTIUS PILATE STILL LIVES.

At the moment he exercises greater influence on our national thinking about foreign affairs than any other person living or dead.

He strides the length and breadth of America, dining his immortal philosophy of neutrality into our minds and hearts. You can hear him on the platform, over the radio, in the club car, at women's club meetings and labour union gatherings. You can read his works in current books, in magazines and newspapers.

"Wash your hands," he says, "of this mess. I did once, and saved myself a lot of work and worry. That was none of my business. This is none of yours. So wash your hands of it now."

FOREIGN POLICY:

For the last 20 years we Americans have been fooling ourselves, as Pilate tried to do in another practical situation, when we've talked about America's foreign policy. We still are. It's not surprising. We have been deluged with a constant stream of propaganda about the "Crime of Versailles." "We won the war and what did we get?" the pathetic spectacle of a gullible America caught in the wily intrigues of Old World diplomacy, England expecting every American to do his duty, the "Merchants of Death" and the "Wall Street Bankers."

Today there's a new, but equally polluted, stream of propaganda luridly warning us against propaganda. The upshot of it all is that the thinking of many honest people has become confused, their nerves jangled and their emotions lashed.

And as a nation we have managed so far to escape from reality and the tough responsibilities of being a first-rate Power.

I DON'T MEAN THAT WE HAVE LOST THE PURITANICAL VICE OF PREACHING TO OTHERS, BUT WE HAVE FAILED TO EXERCISE THE PURITANICAL VIRTUE OF DOING OUR SHARE—AND MORE, IF NEED BE—OF THE HARD WORK OUR VERY GREATNESS REQUIRES OF US.

PURPOSE OF LETTER:

The purpose of this letter is to suggest briefly that we average citizens question some of these slogans and catch-phrases which are doing so much to paralyse the moral driving force of the American people. Too many of us have been doing our thinking on foreign affairs by proxy. A lot of us let the columnists do it.

I suggest that we stuff our ears for a while to the stately measures, the sounding brass and the tinkling cymbals of various of these. Maybe if we do that we can hear ourselves think.

Long before Hitler made the "Crime of Versailles" his favourite bedtime story to the German people, many of our "intellectuals" were talking and writing about it in fevered manner of a town gossip. Pseudo-historians, irresponsible journalists and disgruntled liberals who couldn't digest some of the tougher facts of life all did their bit. There was also some honest, intelligent and justified criticism of it.

As a treaty it had imperfections, having been drawn by imperfect men representing imperfect peoples, most of whom for four years had endured a war that was not exactly perfect. True, Germany lost some rather unprofitable colonies in Africa (in 1914 they accounted for less than one-half of 1 per cent of her foreign trade). Alsace-Lorraine was restored to France. Any objections? The house hears none.

MUCH TOO MUCH:

Then there were the reparations. Much too much. At any rate, machinery was set up whereby they could be scaled down to a reasonable figure and that was shortly done. Voluminous tears have been shed over the war-guilt clause.

Through all the fog and smoke of controversy one thing is clear. England and France did not invade Belgium. The war was not fought on German soil. "But—but—the Germans are a proud people." Since when has such pride become a cardinal and cleansing virtue?

Do you remember what the German leaders said they were going to do to the rest of the world if they won? If you don't and are really interested, I suggest that you dig back into the official documents and the files of newspapers of 25 years ago, and also read the Treaty of Brest-Litovsk. The peace-at-any-price propagandists to-day will not tell you, nor will the facing-both-ways columnists.

Suffice it to say that had Germany won, the Treaty of Versailles, in comparison with the German peace terms, would have seemed like the Sermon on the Mount.

There was one magnificent attempt in the Versailles treaty for a better world—the League of Nations. Our President, Woodrow Wilson, fought hard for it. Those awful European nations, our recent associates, accepted it. America turned it down. We wanted to preach, not work, for a world of peace and ordered liberty.

LET'S BE HONEST:

Yes, there's this and that and a thousand and one other things to be said about the "Crime of Versailles." I am merely suggesting a few things to remember.

The fairest summary of America's participation at the Versailles Peace Conference was made by Clemenceau's right-hand man, Tardieu: "A war won by four could not end in a peace dictated by one."

"But 'We won the war.' Sure we did. Almost single-handed. Almost. Let's try to be honest with ourselves so that we may be fair to others. Let's remember what England and France and our other associates contributed to the winning of that war."

FOR INSTANCE, THEY FOUGHT THE WAR FOR THREE YEARS WHILE WE REMAINED NEUTRAL AND WAXED RICH AT THEIR EXPENSE.

England, with a population one-third of ours, lost in dead alone nearly 1,000,000 men; France, with a population less than one third of ours, more than 1,500,000; Canada, with a population less than New York State, about 100,000.

IN OTHER WORDS, HAD THE UNITED STATES SUFFERED RELATIVELY AS FRANCE DID, OUR DEAD ALONE WOULD HAVE EXCEEDED 4,500,000 MEN. AS IT WAS, WE LOST ABOUT 7,500.

We never knew the horror of an air-raid, the terror and degradation of an invading army destroying our towns and cities and enslaving a large part of our civilian population to be hewers of wood and drawers of water in the enemy country.

Fuel-less Sundays, Liberty Loan drives, and one piece of sugar instead of two were among our major enterprises.

Yes they helped—helped a lot, "turned the tide" and all that sort of thing. But as a nation we were spared the agony our comrades-in-arms endured. My point is that when we stop to think and make a real effort to be fair the propaganda we have been fed for several years seems a bit incident.

SOMETHING "PHONY"

There is something "phony" in the contrast between our noisy pride in our fighting prowess and our self-abasement as diplomatic morons. You know that oft-repeated phrase, "America has won every war and lost every peace conference."

The next time some parlour intellectual repeats that phrase in the pompous manner of the man trying to make a conversational impression, ask him how many and what peace conferences he's talking about.

Did our diplomats lose for us the American Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War of 1845-48, the Spanish-American War or the World War (when we ducked our job by repudiating the League of

"BENEFIT SALE" OF PAINTINGS

The first public effort to raise money for the fight against Tuberculosis in the Colony is being made by Mr. Johnson Lee who is holding an exhibition of his paintings at the St. John's Cathedral Hall.

Over 100 delightfully executed oil and water colour paintings are on view at the Hall daily from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. in addition to several etchings of typical Chinese scenes and life.

MODERATE PRICES

Very moderately priced, these pictures are on sale at prices ranging from $10 to $60. There are also other pictures by the same artist for which offers are invited by the public.

The proceeds are partly in aid of the fight against a scourge that is claiming nearly 5,000 deaths a year in the Colony, 40 per cent of taking of the exhibition being set aside for the newly formed Anti-Tuberculosis Association.

One of the first patrons of the exhibition was the Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn Clarke, D. M. S. who bought two pictures. The exhibition will continue till 7 p.m. on Apr. 30 and it is hoped the public will do their utmost to help a very needy cause.

ROBBERY IN YAUMATI

The staircase of No. 14, Nanking Street, Yaumati district, was the scene of an armed robbery about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon when two men, armed with daggers, robbed Wan Pik-ling, 19, and Ko Yee, 48, both women, of a quantity of jewellery.

GUNMEN ABANDON THEIR TAXI

CHUNGKING, April 29 (Central)—The stolen taxi used by the four allegedly pro-puppet gunmen in the bombing outrage in the press-room of the Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury on Saturday has been discovered in an abandoned place in the western district—badland—of Shanghai, according to a Shanghai message.

The chauffeur of the car has also reported to police authorities who are continuing investigations.

The management of the Evening Post and Mercury printed thousand of extras on the outrage and declared that cowardly intimidation would not influence to the least extent their policy.

STATEMENT BY PREMIER?

LONDON, April 29 (Havas)—It is believed that the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, will make a very important statement on the military situation in Norway on Tuesday.

Parliamentarians, while realising that discretion must be observed with regard to information of a military character, believe that at present information can be communicated without danger of their serving the enemy's purpose.

It is certain that at the present moment news is not very satisfactory since the Germans succeeded in establishing liaison with Hamar and Trondheim.

Nations)? Didn't they do pretty well in the Louisiana and Alaska purchases, the Oregon boundary dispute, the Alaskan fisheries controversy, the Alabama claims, the Venezuelan crisis of 1895? You may not be able to convince him, but at least you will have the satisfaction of exploding a myth.

WHERE NAZIS WERE THOUGHT THERE WOULD BE NO RESISTANCE

And Forgot They Had To Deal With The Navy!

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—“There has been much talk about treachery and the use of the fifth column in Norway but not everyone may realise that this is part of the doctrine created by the German General Staff and the Nazi Government,” said Captain Cyril Falls, military correspondent of “The Times” in a B. B. C. broadcast today.

While “deception” is one of the normal artifices of war, the German method was to employ corruption and treachery in an attempt to win the campaign before it really started.

The Germans had hoped that in Norway, as in Denmark, there would be little or no resistance. They also miscalculated the naval factor.

GERMAN NAVY CRIPPLED

The Norwegians are resisting and the Allied troops are going to their aid, while the German Navy has been so crippled that it is now a less serious menace in the calculations of the Allies and even the neutrals.

The situation in Norway is difficult for two main reasons:—
1.—Although we can interrupt the passage of German troops to Oslo and have indeed already caused thousands of casualties of the most serious kind to their morale—through death by drowning—it is practically impossible to stop this traffic altogether. In fact, the Germans can send reinforcements with less difficulty than can the Allies.

2.—The Nazi air bases are closer so that their planes can harry Allied troops more than we can theirs. We have already done a good deal towards offsetting this by bombing their air bases and have indeed inflicted heavier losses than we have suffered.

RESTRICTED ACTIVITY

We have also sent some fighter planes to attack the Nazi bombers. But it must be remembered that the Germans are, at the moment, in possession of most of the airfields in Norway so that we can operate only on a small scale.

WRONG IN NORWAY

VON RIBBENTROP CANNOT EXPLAIN BRUTAL INVASION

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—In dealing with Herr von Ribbentrop's speech on Saturday, the Belgian paper “Matin” says “The fatuity of such a manoeuvre can only deceive children.”

In discussing the same subject, the St. Louis Post says that Ribbentrop's explanation cannot explain away the plain facts of brutal invasion.

The Italian newspaper “Forze armate” states that the Norwegian defences have been “galvanised by the presence of the Allied troops. The stake is high and gigantic forces face each other in the struggle. Therefore it will be a stern struggle.”

The “Basler Nachrichten” a Swiss newspaper says: “The German ‘Blitzkrieg’ which was to vanquish Scandinavia within a few days has failed. This cannot be denied any longer after the mysterious failure to carry out a monster attack on British transports.”

“This wasted opportunity cannot easily be regained.”

NORWAY NEVER TRANSGRESSED

SOMEWHERE IN NORWAY, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—Dr. H. Koht, Norwegian Foreign Minister, declared that Herr von Ribbentrop's assertion that Norway knew beforehand that Britain intended to mine Norwegian territorial waters and that she approved of the plan was false.

He added that nobody could succeed in proving that Norway in any way transgressed the duties of a neutral.

Norway Was Not Ready

NO PREPARATIONS EVER MADE

WASHINGTON, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—The Norwegian Legation in Washington categorically denies that there has ever been any agreement between the Norwegian Government and any other Powers concerning the use of Norwegian territory for military or naval forces, or other facilities.

The new German White Paper is similar to the methods used by Berlin to justify the invasion of Belgium in the last war.

There has never been any collusion between Norway and Britain against Germany and the Legation states that the Germans could not have found any documents showing that Norway was preparing for war, for no such action had been contemplated.

JAPANESE TRADE WITH DUTCH EAST INDIES

Special To H.K. Daily Press

TOKYO, Apr. 29 (Havas).—Trade circles are now urging the development of Japanese trade with the Netherlands East Indies replacing the Scandinavian countries which have been paralysed as a consequence of the extension of the European conflict.

The trade of the Netherlands Indies with the Scandinavian countries, though not very important, included imports and exports which Japan is quite ready to take over.

Early Intensification Of War On All Fronts Is Predicted In Many Quarters

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—Evidence accumulates in many quarters of an early intensification of the war on all fronts—not only in the areas already turned into theatres of war, but also in others which hitherto have been immune, writes the Daily Telegraph diplomatic correspondent.

GERMAN DRIVE CHECKED

In the Oester Valley, the Germans are reported to be held up five miles north of Roer where the Norwegians destroyed the road and bridge.

BERLIN, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—A German High Command communiqué claims that the pacification of the interior of Norway is continuing.

Twenty-four guns, equipment and ammunition were captured and a dynamite factory occupied.

Norwegians Hold Nazis

ONLY TWO ROADS TO SWEDEN

STOCKHOLM, April 29 (Reuter).—According to the military correspondent of the Svenska Dagbladet the German troops advancing from Oslo along the Oslo-Bergen Railway are reported to have been checked by Norwegian troops at Naes, to the north-west of Oslo.

This German force is now 85 miles from the other force, advancing along the same railway from Bergen, and which captured Voss.

If the troops from Oslo break through the present Norwegian resistance, they are faced with a long climb up snow-covered mountains. All roads from Norway to Sweden, except two, are now reported to be under German control.

RUMANIA AND YUGOSLAVIA WILL NOT STRETCH POINT

BUCHAREST, Apr. 29 (Havas).—Rumania and Yugoslavia have flatly turned down the Hungarian proposal to stretch a point in the international control of the Danube, with German gunboats being allowed on the river.

Hungary's proposal was addressed to Bucharest, Belgrade and Sofia urging the bordering States and Germany to carry out the policing of the Danube. Sofia and Bratislava have not yet replied.

It will be recalled that similar proposals were submitted last March before the Belgrade conference in which members of the Balkan Entente took part but the scheme was rejected.

Hungary agreed to this plan but reserved the right to make new suggestions at some future date.

It was later reported that Germany had exerted pressure on Budapest to secure a change in the system of policing the Danube.

Budapest originally denied these rumours but apparently they have since been substantiated.

GALWAY'S OFFICE EXTENDED

WELLINGTON, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—The office of Governor-General of New Zealand held by Viscount Galway, G.C.M.G., D.S.O., has been extended until February next. His Governorship of New Zealand has already been extended six months.

Viscount Galway, who was formerly Sir George Vere Arundell Munckton-Arundell, has been Governor-General of New Zealand since 1935.

Corsica Is Italian, Says Dr. Ley

BERLIN, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—The German Labour Leader, Dr. Ley, in a broadcast to German youth, emphasised Italian solidarity with Germany.

Dr. Ley said that Italy was in the same position Germany with the same enemies, Britain and France.

On the question of Corsica, he asked, was it French or Italian?

Dr. Ley asserted it was Italian and the great Napoleon was, therefore, Italian.

The German Labour added, “We cannot tolerate the British in the Mediterranean as we cannot tolerate them in the Baltic.”

STABILISATION OF COMMODITY PRICES

CHUNGKING, Apr. 29 (Central).—To check the steady rise of the cost of living in the interior, the Government authorities have decided to set aside a sum of $50,000,000 as a stabilisation fund for commodity prices, it is learned here.

Wholesale purchases will be made of daily necessities to be resold to the public. Where necessary, arrangements have been made for the four Government banks to extend credit facilities.

INDIAN WAR SUPPLIES FOR INDO-CHINA

SIMLA, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—Following the recent visit of a mission from French Indo-China to Delhi, an agreement was reached whereby India will supply Indo-China with a wide range of war materials.

The agreement also provides for the reciprocal supply of materials required by the armed forces of both countries.

UNITED FRONT AGAINST WANG REGIME

Some Of The Difficulties Of Overseas Chinese

CHUNGKING, April 29 (Central).—The outbreak of the European War has its advantages and disadvantages as far as overseas Chinese are concerned, according to Mr. Chen Shu-jen, Chairman of the Overseas Affairs Commission, in a review of overseas affairs recently.

For instance, Mr. Chen pointed out, Chinese in the South Seas are benefitted by the rise in the prices of tin, rubber, timber and spices, while the wartime boom enjoyed by the United States' munitions industries is shared by Chinese residents in that country.

On the other hand, the activity of Chinese communities abroad in general and the Kuomintang members in particular are affected by the strict postal and telegraphic censorship, foreign exchange control and restriction against public meetings, etc.

ANTI-CHINESE WORK
Several grave facts are also confronting Chinese in foreign colonies and settlements. Mr. Chen continued. One of them is the enlightenment policy adopted by the white men toward the natives, whose educational level is raised and who are gradually replacing the economic interests enjoyed by the Chinese. He cited the anti-Chinese agitation in Thailand as an example.

Continuing, he revealed the practical difficulties confronting the work of the Kuomintang abroad. The party, he said, is not allowed to work in the open in Malaya. In Dutch East Indies, the Kuomintang may work openly, but its members are closely watched. The Three People's Principles are banned there.

In Thailand, Kuomintang officials were arrested and deported. Likewise, the Kuomintang's activity in Brazil is severely handicapped by the Rio de Janeiro Government's decree prohibiting activities of alien political parties.

However, one comforting fact is that the Chinese abroad, whether Kuomintang members or not, are united in opposing the Wang Ching-wei puppet regime.

REVOLUTION IN PANAMA?

PANAMA, April 29 (Reuter).—A secret store of arms, including some German sub-machineguns, was seized in the early morning yesterday by the Panamanian police. A number of arrests were made but no details were revealed.

The police are believed to be searching for other similar stores. Rumours of revolutionary plotting have been current here recently and zero hour was said to have been set for last Friday night but nothing happened.

Murder And Barbarity Near Shanghai Area

Old Men Killed: Wounded Denied Medical Aid

SHANGHAI, April 29 (Reuter).—A long cordon of burnt down villages, within a few miles of Shanghai, still smoking and lifeless, apart from a few howling dogs, affords grim evidence of the Japanese punitive action in reprisal for the guerrilla raids, writes Reuter's representative, who is the first foreigner to effect an entry into the strictly guarded zone, lying to the west of the city, off Tsingpu Road.

Four Germans Kidnapped

ONE IS MEMBER OF EMBASSY

Special To H.K. Daily Press

PEKING, Apr. 29 (Havas).—Four

Germans, one of whom was a woman, were kidnapped yesterday by bandits in the Piyun Temple on the western hills. The woman was released yesterday evening while two others were held captives.

The bandits demanded watches, money and arms but did not receive arms and refused to set all free until their demands had been complied with.

The German authorities are endeavouring to get in touch with the kidnapers for the release. One of the captives is a member of the German Embassy, one a doctor, one a Peking resident and the woman a typist.

LORD “HAW HAW” AND SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, Apr. 29 (Int'l).—Lord “Haw Haw” has made his presence felt in Shanghai over the German radio station here when he used choice names in referring to the news commentator in American-owned station XMEA who gave out news not complimentary to the Nazis.

In Shanghai as in Berlin, Lord “Haw Haw” is the radio announcer in English over the German broadcasting station.

Meanwhile, the jamming of the American station has decreased and can be clearly heard in the outskirts except in the nightly broadcasts at 10.15 p.m.

AFRAID OF GUERRILLAS

The villages were burnt during day-time raids, the people declared, as the “Japanese are afraid to come out in the night owing to the guerrillas.”

Although a Japanese military spokesman denied to Reuter last week that there were “major operations” in the area, saying that the trouble caused by the guerrillas was negligible, it is obvious that the Japanese were compelled to considerably tighten up all precautions.

The wounded are in a pitiable plight and are not able to get medical assistance as they cannot get passes to get through the Japanese manned barriers on the road to Shing-hai.

NEW POSTS

A number of apparently new military posts have sprung up in that area and a new barracks has been built on the Hunjiao aerodrome.

It is believed the guerrillas are making the fullest use of the growing crops in harassing the small Japanese garrisons on the outskirts of Shanghai.

PRESERVATION OF PEACE WAS CHIEF AIM OF NORWEGIAN POLICY, SAYS FOREIGN MINISTER

During the debate on the Speech from the Throne the Norwegian Foreign Minister, Dr. Koht, laid particular stress on the passage in the Speech which declared the preservation of peace to be the chief aim of the Norwegian Government.

Continuing, Dr. Koht said that to remain neutral is not only a duty we owe our country but is also a right we exercise in our relations with other peoples.

One may at times be inclined to believe that the belligerent Powers think that we ought to choose between them, and that there is really no other way out offered to us.

INDEPENDENT POLICY

I will, therefore, put on record that we regard ourselves as being in truth outside the war. Our neutrality is the outcome of an independent Norwegian policy and is based on vitally important Norwegian interests. We will not let ourselves be drawn into the war and we are determined to defend our neutrality as far as it lies in our power.

The Foreign Minister then referred to the problems which the war has created for the small nations, pointing out that the mine warfare had proved the most fatal to this country. Norway has since the outbreak of war lost 28 ships aggregating 70,000 tons and more than a hundred (X) Norwegian seamen have perished.

The Norwegian war casualties have been mounting fast lately. By February 2, 33 ships aggregating 91,234 tons had been sunk with a total of 227 lives lost. In some cases there had been a well-founded suspicion that the sinkings had been due to submarines. We know that two vessels have been sunk by German warships, but there are in addition four doubtful cases where there is no definite proof that the sinking was the work of belligerent vessels.

SERIOUS HINDRANCE

The mine and submarine war has proved a serious hindrance to the Norwegian export trade and has also been harmful to the belligerents themselves. The belligerents would do well to consider whether they had not better in their own interest exercise greater restraint in their use of this form of warfare.

The mine war has also been carried into Norwegian territorial waters. In the first half of December one British and one Greek vessel were sunk off the Norwegian coast. It is, however, doubtful whether those sinkings occurred within the territorial limit. It is on the other hand clearly established that the sinking of another British vessel the "Deftford" occurred in Norwegian territorial waters.

In none of these cases has it been proved that the sinking was caused by torpedoes. One might have suspicions, and these seemed strongest in the case of the "Deftford." If so a German submarine must have been at work. As soon as the investigations were completed all three cases were brought to the attention of the German Government, with a request that the matter be fully looked into and steps taken to prevent a recurrence. It should be found that the sinking of the "Deftford" was due to a German submarine.

ENTIRELY UNFOUNDED

A whole month after the above-mentioned sinkings had taken place, British and French newspapers affirmed that Norway was unable to keep the war from invading her territory and suggested that Allied warships should therefore enter Norwegian territorial waters.

The information here submitted makes it quite clear, however, that this contention is entirely unfounded, and even if one of the belligerents had committed such flagrant violation of our neutral-ty, this would give the other party no right whatever to do the same.

We have done everything in our power to maintain a strict neutrality. This was acknowledged by the whole world when we released the German prize "City of Flint" as she sought refuge in a Norwegian port. We have shown and will continue to show our will to preserve strict neutrality towards all the belligerents.

SOVIET & FINLAND

Commenting on the war between Soviet-Russia and Finland Dr. Koht said:

When Russian forces invaded Finland the feeling in our country was one of consternation. It was war against a peaceful neighbour with whom we live in close collaboration, and our hearts cannot but be deeply stirred by this event.

Nobody can prevent such feelings, and no Government can prevent that help is sent to mitigate the sufferings of the Finnish people. But, however natural these things are, it is equally clear that the state must remain outside the conflict. This is the more necessary as much forces as we have for our defence are needed at home.

Under the political conditions now prevailing in Europe we might easily find ourselves involved in a conflict with more than one Great Power. We can not embark on such a policy of adventure.

It has been a cause of great satisfaction to us that Finland has played its part in Northern co-operation, but it should be borne in mind that it was never the meaning that this collaboration should have military significance.

All the Northern Governments have declared themselves against a military alliance and during the meeting of the Northern states at Stockholm on October 18 and 19 last, it was made clear that none of the Northern countries had contracted any obligations of a military nature towards any other country.

RUBBER SHIPMENTS TO THE UNITED STATES

British Malaya Exports On The Increase

NEW YORK, April 29 (Havas).—The "Weekly Survey of Commodity and Exchange" states that changes in the sources of American rubber supplies, which were expected as a result of the war, failed to materialise.

Commercial quarters thought that American buyers of crude rubber would have to depend on the Dutch East Indies more than on British Malaya because of war time conditions.

BETTER FIGURES

However, figures for the first six months of the war have failed to substantiate this, and actually British Malaya has supplied, since the war started, 67.3 per cent of America's rubber, computed on a monthly average basis, as compared with the monthly average of 64.8 per cent for the period between January 1937 and August 1939.

According to this survey the only notable shift in world rubber shipments since the outbreak of the war was, firstly, a decided drop in British Malaya's share in rubber shipments to Japan and Europe, and secondly, the sharp increase of re-exports from the United States to Europe.

Since the war started Europe has received 13.9 per cent of its rubber from the United States in the form of re-exports.

SHANGHAI PORK SHORTAGE

SHANGHAI, April 29 (Reuter).—Almost all pork dealers in the French Concession and the International Settlement were compelled to suspend business yesterday when they were unable to obtain fresh supplies of pork from Nantung, Kiangsu Province, owing to the heavy taxes imposed by the Japanese authorities, says the Sinwampao.

ANGLO-ITALIAN TRADE TALKS

LONDON, April 29 (Reuter).—It is learned that Anglo-Italian trade relations was discussed in an interview between Lord Halifax and the Italian Ambassador, Signor Bastianini, over the end of the week. One of the main objectives was to carry forward the trade talks, which were interrupted early in March, at the time of the incident concerning Italian coal ships at Rotterdam.

All cotton exporting countries except the United States, Egypt, and Peru have lost ground in the current season as compared to a year ago, according to figures released in New York by the Cotton Exchange, says Havas. China showed the heaviest drop in the exchange listing, dropping from 253,000 bales in 1938-39 to 14,000 bales in 1939-40. Exports from the United States, Egypt and Peru

SPURS ORDERED TO PAY RATES

Court Threatens To Issue Distress

LONDON, April 16 (By Air Mail).—Tottenham Hotspur Football Club were summoned at Tottenham today for the nonpayment of rates amounting $844 7s 1d.

COURT ORDER

The Bench made an order for the amount to be paid in four weeks, otherwise distress would issue.

When the case was called, Mr. Arthur Turner (secretary of the club) said he appeared in answer to the summons, but the clerk of the court stated: "The Spurs are a limited company and can be represented only by a solicitor. I should have thought the Spurs would have had a solicitor."

AN APPEAL

Mr. L. C.A. Dubery (the chairman) said as you have not got the whole team here, we don't mind.

It was intimated that the Club had entered an appeal against the rate on their premises, but it was said that they had no right to withhold payment pending the hearing of the appeal.

Mr. Turner pleaded that the Club was unable, owing to the difficult circumstances of the times, to meet the claim.

He pointed out that immediately after the summer close season, the war came and the ground was closed for seven weeks. Since then the Government had allowed attendances of only 10 per cent. of the normal.

BANK "NOT KEEN"

The Tottenham Corporation occupied part of the stands for which they had paid nothing.

In reply to a suggestion that the club should obtain the money from the bank, Mr. Turner said that banks were not keen to lend money where there were big overdrafts.

WARNING TO MARINERS

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—The Admiralty announce that Vestfjorden and its approaches have been mined, and vessels navigating in these areas without seeking instructions from the local British or Norwegian naval authorities do so at their own peril. The announcement says "Vestfjorden is mined to the north of a line extending in the direction of 126 degrees from Vaeroy Island Light 67.39' days N. 12.45' days E to the mainland. Channels to the north-east and to the south of Steinvaer Island 69.16' days N. 16.35' days E have also been mined."

showed gains. India lost ground, falling from 1,044,000 bales last year to 888,000 bales this year. Brazil's export dropped from 535,000 bales to 419,000 bales.

Sir John Simon Should Have Asked For More Press Criticism Of Budget: Two Points Of View

LONDON, Apr. 29 (Reuter).—A Sound Budget and A Budget of Delusion—these two headings of leading articles reveal the difference of opinion held by the British press in connexion with the new Budget.

The former is from the Spectator which follows the line of reasoning by the Chancellor of the Exchequer who, the paper says, made a fair distribution between borrowing and taxation. It approves of the other taxes with the exception of the raising of postage rate.

The other heading comes from the Economist which is very critical. The Chancellor has missed the opportunity to introduce a Budget which would have served as a promise of resolute action and would have given the people a chance to demonstrate their passionate desire to serve the State.

The Economist is also dissatisfied with the methods. The taxation proposals bear heavily only on the specific points on which they are imposed. Increases on beer, spirits and tobacco and the stiff increased postage rates are penal but the increase of taxation as a whole is light.

NATION'S RESOLUTION

The new Purchase Tax is an interesting newcomer, but it is not a major contribution towards paying for the war.

More should be done to increase savings even if all forms of expenditure must be brought under control.

The Sunday Times says that the British people cannot be taxed without their own consent, and no people in that position have ever been taxed so heavily. Yet the principle criticism of the Chancellor has been to imply that he should have asked for more sacrifices, not less.

One could desire to better evidence of the nation's resolution than the reception given last Tuesday's Budget.

GERMANS EXPELLED FROM TURKEY

ANKARA, April 29 (Reuter).—The authorities are reported to have arrested, and ordered the expulsion of five Germans—an archaeological professor, a journalist and his wife, a merchant and his agent.

This follows the tightening up of the control of foreigners residing in Turkey. Istanbul police have ordered all cabaret artists, who recently arrived in large numbers and are mostly of Hungarian nationality, to leave the country before May 1.

Well-informed quarters in Paris declare that a decision to inaugurate a strict control of German imports and exports by air, was reached at the recent meeting of the Allied Supreme War Council, despite the immense difficulties involved. The step is due to the fact that air traffic between Germany and many neutrals has reached huge figures, largely surpassing pre-war figures. All sorts of goods, including some heavy ones, are being transported.—(Havas).

Brenner Pass Parley Was Greatest Diplomatic Squeeze Play Of War

HIS MAJESTY'S IMPATIENT LOYAL OPPOSITION IN PARLIAMENT RECENTLY DEMANDED ACTION. Eloquent Laborite Herbert S. Morrison wanted "more vigor and liveliness" in war and diplomacy than he felt Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, who turned 71 recently, has been giving.

Retired Permanent Secretary to the Treasury, Sir Warren Fisher, was blunter. "We are up against the creed of the devil," he said. "Your German is, of all foul and dirty fighters, the foulest and dirtiest. We must give them hell in every sort of way."

As rebellious criticism mounted, political dopesters even mentioned Mr. David Lloyd George, the "Welsh Wizard" who won the last war for Great Britain, as a possible last-ditch Cabinet appointee. And from France came censored dispatches predicting soon the formation of a "sacred union," "Government of all parties."

DEVILISH CUNNING. So far, in Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, and now in Finland, Adolf Hitler had managed with devilish cunning to give his western opponents no place to lay a hand on him. Their chosen strategy for the past six months had perforce been tenacity—hang on, if unable to smoke him out, starve him out.

Had the time now come for audacity? Such was the questioning mood, gloomy yet determined, uneasy though defiant, that was rapidly developing in the Allied countries. And just at that point Adolf Hitler, that gifted diplomatic poker player with a hand full of jokers, raised his opponents' hair by producing another one.

LEARNED INSULT

It all started about the time that the Nazi Foreign Minister, Herr Joachim von Ribbentrop, returned to Germany early last week after an apparently cool reception in Rome. Conclusion was reached that the Axis was bending. Fascist Giovanni Ansaldi even wrote an editorial for Leghorn's Telegrafo which contained a studied, learned insult. "To him (Ribbentrop) who, while we write, is mounting the Alps, which close Lamagna above Tiralli, we send our respectful salute," wrote Signor Ansaldi. The quotation is from Dante's Divine Comedy and, no educated Italian needs to be told, it is often used to express the Italian command to the Germanic hordes to stay beyond the Alps.

GOOD OFFICES

In the Italian Chamber of Fascists and Corporations announcement was made that a fine new set of forts protected Italy's Alpine border, but scarcely was the Foreign Minister back in Berlin before Nazi officials began to taunt newsmen with hints of impending "big doings."

A Rumanian Army mission mysteriously turned up in Berlin, and reports came out that Adolf Hitler had offered to lend his "good offices" in persuading Russia and Hungary to be nice—not to invade King Carol II's domain. For these good offices, the Fuehrer "hoped" that Rumania would: (1) demobilize half her Army; (2) give the Nazis a monopoly on oil and grain exports; (3) admit a pro-Nazi Iron Guard into the Rumanian Cabinet to "safeguard German interest."

Moreover, before the Rumanian Senate, Youth Leader General Theophilus Sidorovici disclosed that Benito Mussolini would guarantee Rumanian frontiers. That Carol was at any rate listening to Herr Hitler's propositions was evident when Fre-mier George Tatarescu's Government released 786 Iron Guard terrorists from jail.

MR. WELLES

Mr. Sumner Welles, official U.S. roving fact-finder, arrived back in Rome after a trip to Berlin, London. Without delay he saw Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano for 70 minutes. King Vittorio Emanuele for 45. Il Duce for 75. Mr. Welles held his tongue, but postponed his sailing back to the U.S. for a day.

U.S. Secretary of State Hull denied in Washington that Mr. Welles had acted as an intermediary in Europe's quarrels.

SQUEEZE PLAY

Intermediary or not, Mr. Welles suddenly found himself a spectator at what could well be the greatest diplomatic squeeze play of the war. From a Rome platform, Il Duce, wearing a dark civilian suit and carrying a heavy black coat, jumped into a special train and headed north. At about the same time in Berlin, the Fuehrer caught a southbound special express. Nobody but the diplomats involved—and Mr. Welles—had received the slightest notice of the rendezvous.

At 9.30 a.m., Il Duce's trim train pulled in at the little mountain village of Brennero, in the famed Brenner Pass, just over the German border in Italy. Forty minutes later, the Fuehrer's forty arrived in a driving snow storm. Steel-helmeted Alpine troops carrying bayoneted rifles stood guard while Benito Mussolini and Count Ciano escorted Herr Hitler and von Ribbentrop from their train to Il Duce's saloon car. A red carpet, flanked by specially provided potted palms pointed the way.

The shades of the car were drawn and Europe's two dominating dictators, one-time partners in aggression, who swore less than a year ago a rigid "pact of iron" to stand together in war as well as peace, sat down to talk for two hours and twelve minutes. Then, after a cordial good-bye—Mussolini smiling, Hitler pale—they hurried back to their capitals.

WHAT WAS DECIDED?

"What did they say or decide?" was the question all Europe wanted answered. Tight-lipped Mr. Welles might be the first to know, since he was expected to be received by Mussolini before he sailed.

The Germans were exultant. A short-wave radio from Berlin reminded hearers that Italy was not neutral but merely "nonbelligerent," volunteered that the "subject of the talk was the problems which concern the present situation."

An Italian radio gave a clue when it admitted that the "meeting is related to Sumner Welles' presence in Rome." But Germany was pointedly reminded that she would be deceiving herself if she thought "she can influence Italy's policy freedom of action."

ELEVEN POINTS

One guess was that the dictators talked of an Allied-German of the other countries. Nor did any of them take upon itself the responsibility of offering advice to Finland in regard to the negotiations with Russia. The decision lay entirely with Finland.

NEUTRAL POLICY

It has been natural for Norway to take her stand upon the Hague Convention of 1907, and this is what the Government has done. This applies to the question of the internment of soldiers from belligerent countries. It also applies to the question of the voluntary participation of individual citizens in war and the export of goods and war materials.

Our own penal law prohibits recruitment for foreign military service and the Hague Convention contains a provision prohibiting the establishment of recruiting offices. The offices opened in this country have undertaken to abstain from offering help and advice except to those who have already made up their minds that they want to go to Finland. The Government has nothing whatever to do with any such activity.

The Government has with a firm and steady hand pursued a policy of neutrality and there was cause for satisfaction in the fact that the three Northern countries collaborated in this matter as well as in regard to other questions arising out of the present situation. The Foreign Minister finally expressed his conviction that the Norwegian people stood firm and united behind the Government and the policy of neutrality which they pursued.

peace, with Italy and the U.S. as guarantors—if anyone could conceive of any terms now mutually acceptable or any that the U.S. people would be willing to underwrite. As Mr. Welles prepared to sail for home, Rome reported that he carried a Hitler eleven-point peace proposal.

The points: (1) general disarmament; (2) formation of a small, independent Poland; (3) Czechs, Slovaks and Hungarians to be allied to the Reich; (4) Austria forever in the Reich; (5) return of German colonies within 25 years; (6) formation of a Danubian Federation headed by Germany and Italy; (7) guarantee of the Balkan status quo; (8) Germany's remaining Jews to migrate; (9) no trade barriers; (10) free passage of the Suez beginning in 1945; (11) Tunisia!
